This edition is limited to copies

The Nye Family of America Association will always welcome news which concerns our name. This book is not the end, but only a milestone in our history. It is hoped that all important events in the lives of Nyes will be reported to the Family Association, whether births, marriages, deaths or just remembered tales of the past. For some day, perhaps in another generation, there may be another book. Those yet to come will surely enjoy the records we leave behind, even as we treasure the memories of those who preceeded us.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

To produce this book, all Nyes living in the United States who could be located were invited to submit their personal and family history. A large number of those invited could not be persuaded to reply. There were some who did reply who could not provide enough information to be traced to any of the several sources of the Nye family recorded in this book. These, regretfully, had to be omitted. The considerable volume of data presented here is due in part to the enthusiastic effort put forth by a number of individuals who collected rather complete genealogies of their personal families and made them available.

It is not possible to list the many hundreds of Nyes who provided special assistance and encouragement to this compilation. A few who have made such outstanding contributions as to deserve very special mention are gratefully acknowledged below:

Bessie (Peterson) Nye, Grant City, Mo.
 Marian Nye Billingham, Manhattan, Kans.
 Selden Spencer Nye, Brownsville, Tex.
 Mrs. Addie Laws, Austin, Minn.
 Verna Nye Camien, University Park, N. Mex.
 Mr. & Mrs. Roger A. Nye, Fairfield, Me.
 Hon. Gerald P. Nye, Chevy Chase, Md.
 George Branch Nye & Edna Marie Nye, Shannon, N. C.
 Charles W. Nye, Ellwood City, Pa.

A GENEALOGY OF THE NYE FAMILY

Foreword

This book is a sequel to the original book, "A Genealogy of the Nye Family," compiled by George Hyatt Nye and Frank E. Best, published under the auspices of the Nye Family of America Association in 1907. This book is not complete without reference to a copy of the original book, referred to later as Volume I. However, many Nyes who are listed in Volume I are also described here, either where they were not first listed in Volume I as heads of families, or simply because new information was available which was not known to the compilers of the earlier book. In all except a very small number of unavoidable cases the original numbers are unchanged.

The 1907 publication has stood the test of time very well. Some few errors have been noted and some corrected herein. Because of the confusion in many family records, painfully well known to the compilers of this volume, the remarkable accuracy of Volume I remains a tribute to the thoroughness of its compilers.

The numbering method in this volume up through the 10th generation follows the numbering sequence used in Volume I, the 1907 Genealogy. In Volume I, the standard practice was followed of listing first, the children of the family progenitor, in order of birth, then the children of the first child in order, then the children of the second child, etc., succeeding generations following this order of precedence. A problem arises for the compiler when new information comes in after identifying numbers have been assigned. Other than rejecting the new data, the only practicable solution is to add an alphabetical suffix to the number just preceding the ordered position of the new name. This precedent was set in Volume I and was used extensively in this book to avoid renumbering with resultant new numbers for names which had been listed in Volume I.

However, the numbering method for the 10th generation forward was changed to a decimal system similar to that used on library books. The addition of any name to this book or any future genealogy is with a number which is predictable in advance for the individual. Taking a number at random, 4750.2.7.1; this person is immediately identifiable as the first child of the seventh child of the second child of number 4750. He is also recognizable as twelfth generation, i. e., three decimal places (generations) plus nine, which was the number of the last generation to carry a whole number.

Although it is not the intent in this volume to repeat information which appeared in Volume I, a resume of early history which led to the establishment of our family on this continent is believed warranted. To this end, no better summary can be written than the words of George H. Nye, the compiler of Volume I, when he addressed the First National Reunion of the Nye Family of America on August 5, 1903:

"The name of Nye first appears in Great Britain in the fifteenth century, but long before that period or about the middle of the thirteenth century, it appeared in the Sjeiland section of Denmark. About that time many Swedes fled to adjoining states to avoid the dangers at home, and we find traces of their settlements in Denmark in such compound names as Nyborg, Ny-stead, and of other towns named after their Swedish homes; in like manner to the naming of the New Amsterdam by the Dutch settlers in America, the prefix Ny in the Danish language, meaning new or new comer.

In those days, in many countries surnames were altogether unknown, as it became more and more the custom to adopt them, as a means of avoiding confusion, some distinctive feature gave a man the surname by which he was distinguished among his fellow men; perchance his trade or occupation, as Baker, Carpenter or Gardener; perhaps his figure, as Broad, Short or Tallman; often the simple addition of son, as Johnson, Williamson or Robinson.

In the middle of the thirteenth century, then this new comer, to whom tradition attributed a noble descent, settled in Denmark and was given by the inhabitants the name of Nye, signifying new comer, and his son, Lave Nye, became a man of great prominence, and ultimately, in 1316, bishop of Roskilde.

The family remained in that locality for four more generations, when two brothers James and Randolph, sons of Bertolf Nye, settled in England; James, the elder, in Wiltshire, afterwards removing to Hampshire; while Randolph, the younger, from whom the American Nyes are sprung, settled in Sussex, and we may suppose the welcome to Alexandra extended to him:

"Saxon and Norman and Dane are we,

But all of us Danes in our welcome of thee."

The Danish family of Nye bore as armory, azure, a crescent in-crescent argent; crest, two horns couped, counter charged azure and crescent. None of the family ever took the trouble to have this confirmed in England, and no original grant of a Nye coat of arms appears in the English records.

Randolf Nye, mentioned as holding land in Uckfield, Sussex, had one son, William, a minister, who, in turn, bequeathed the Uckfield farm to his son, Ralph, in 1556; of his children Thomas, the oldest, settled in Bidlenden, county Kent, and had a somewhat celebrated family.

Henry, born in 1589, matriculated at Oxford in 1609, was bachelor of arts in 1611, vicar of Cobham, Surrey, in 1615, rector of Clapham, Sussex, in 1630. He had a son, John, who matriculated at Oxford in 1634. Philip, the second son, born in 1596, matriculated at Oxford in 1616, rector of St. Michael's, Cornhill, and of Acton, Middlesex, in 1645, was a celebrated independent preacher of Cromwell's time.

In Henry G. Bohn's edition of Butler's Hudibras, published by George Bell and Son, London, may be found interesting notes concerning him, and his famous beard, which the poet refers to in rhyme. In fact, Philip Nye's beard is honored with an entire poem in Butler's Genuine Remains, Vol. I, page 177.

At that period beards were the prominent part of fashionable costume, So much so, that when the head of a certain celebrated court chaplain and preacher had been dressed in a superior style, the friseur exclaimed, with a mixture of admiration and self applause, "I'll be hanged if any person of taste can attend to one word of the sermon today." This will enable us to comprehend the lines of the poet, when he writes,

"With greater art and cunning reared

Then Philip Nye's Thanksgiving beard."

That this was not his only vanity, we can imagine from the fact that, while rector of Acton he rode there every Lord's day in triumph in a coach drawn by four horses. He attacked William Lilly, the prophetic astrologer, from the pulpit with much virulence, and for this service was rewarded with the office of holding forth upon Thanksgiving days.

He was a prominent figure during the protectorate of Oliver Cromwell and one of the dissenting brethren in the Westminster assembly, and distinguished himself by his zeal and activity in support of the parliament against Charles I.

In 1633 he fled to Holland to escape the persecution, where he remained until 1640. A son of his, Rupert, died at Oxford college in 1660, while he himself died in 1672, and was buried in the upper vault under the Church of St. Michael, Cornhill. He wrote a complete history of the old Puritan dissenters, but the manuscript was burned at Alderman Clarkson's, in the great fire of London.

Thomas, the third son, named after his father, inherited the lands in Bidlenden, county Kent, which he bequeathed in turn to his youngest son, who also bore the name of Thomas, on July 4th, 1637, and stating in that document, "My oldest son, Benjamin, having gone to New England."

It is this Benjamin, who gave up his birthright to seek his fortune in the New World, whose memory we honor today and whose birthday is recorded as May 4th, 1620.

Among the favorite names of the early daughters of Cape Cod, that of Abigail is quite prominent, and it is in the good ship Abigail, of which Robert Hackwell was master, that we presume Benjamin to have embarked. Unfortunately but fragments of her list have been preserved, but of the names upon those fragments appear several of the original settlers of Sandwich, and among them we find that of the Rev. Thomas Tupper, whose daughter Katherine became the wife of Benjamin Nye.

The Abigail sailed sometime after July 10th, 1635, the last date mentioned in any of the fragments, and landed at Saugus, now Lynn. Many of the party remained there, but some time about April 3d, 1637, a number of families removed to Sandwich, as appears by an order of the court of that date, wherein they were granted sufficient land for three score families. Dennis Geere, of Saugus, one of the Abigail's passengers, died shortly after landing, on December 10th, 1635, leaving the sum of thirty shillings to Benjamin Nye.

Those appearing upon the fragments of the Abigail's lists all took the oath of conformity before sailing, while the Nyes of England were non-conformists, or independents, so possibly Benjamin was stowed away. At any rate, he got there, a trait which has become a family characteristic.

In 1643 he appears in the list of those in Sandwich able to bear arms. In 1654 his name appears on a list of those contributing toward building a mill. March 29th, 1655, his name is on the subscription list for building a meeting-house. In 1655 he is supervisor of highways, and his name appears through many years of town history.

In 1669 he is granted "twelve acres of land because he built the mill by the little pond." A few months later he is granted "eight acres of land adjoining his six acres next to his meadow by the little river."

August 8th, 1675, "voted Benjamin Nye permission to build a fulling-mill upon Spring Hill river, providing it does not 'damnifie' the County road, and to keep a mill in said place so long as he keeps a fulling-mill there."

The history of Barnstable county states, "At Spring Hill, just west from East Sandwich, the remains of the old Benjamin Nye saw mill are still extant in the brook."

Of the sons of Benjamin, John and Ebenezer bought one thousand acres of land at Megansett, North Falmouth, by deed from Elizabeth Ellis, which was afterwards confirmed by title from the Colonial government, and signed by William Bradford, son and heir of Governor Bradford of the Plymouth colony. The title to this Nye tract has, I am informed, passed by descent to this date without going into other hands than those of lineal descendants in the male line."

SECTION I

Maclean W. McLean
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

This section sets forth new information not known to the compilers of the 1907 Genealogy. Details are given which in most instances, verify, in others modify the original genealogy. The names listed in Chapter I are not indexed in this book.

Note: In the following notes the 1907 Nye Genealogy will be referred to as Vol. I, and all marginal notes will refer to the page and ancestral numbers given in Vol. I.

#5 Jonathan 2 Nye, (Benjamin 1) (pp. 39/41). A study of the will of this Jonathan 2 Nye, dated 1744 (of which a full text is printed in Vol. I), strongly suggests that when he refers, first of all, to "my three daughters, viz. Patience, Abigail and Zurviah," the testator intended to complete the "portions" or shares of his youngest three daughters, - who presumably had not yet received their full and fair shares. Their birth dates are shown and they are named in chronological order and were, we submit, the three daughters by the second wife, Patience (Burges) Nye. The father then proceeds to name "The rest of my children, viz. Mary, Sarah, Jabez, Joana, Ichabod, Jonathan, Joseph, Benjamin, Thomas and David," of whom he says, "I have already given such portions unto as I judge sufficient for them." These are probably named in chronological sequence of their births. Yet, the compilers, for some reason, place "No. 36 Mary, born _____, married March 7, 1728 John Fuller of Barnstable," - among the children of the second wife, Patience, even though it would seem that she would have been mentioned if such were the case, with her sisters, - and full siblings. We note that all the others who are described as "the rest of my children" are named in chronological order according to the dates of birth (at least so far as can be told with those whose birth dates are known. Mary seems to have been placed among the children of the second wife because of the date of her alleged marriage to John Fuller in 1728. But - the following entry in the Sandwich town records was evidently overlooked:

"Isaac Holmes of Plymouth married in Sandwich 21 November 1705 Mary Nye of Sandwich."

We submit that this entry which will be found in The Mayflower Descendant (30:101) refers to Mary 3 Nye, the above-mentioned daughter of Jonathan 2 Nye, by his first wife Hannah _____. There was no other suitable Mary Nye to have been the bride of Isaac Holmes. For a tentative identification of the Mary Nye who married in 1728 John Fuller, (vide post). Since three of the five children by the first wife, Hannah _____ married into Plymouth families, it would seem that search for the identity of Hannah's family should be concentrated in that township. All the children by the second wife, Patience (Burges), have descent from William Brewster, the Mayflower passenger, (see this writer's articles: "Some Additional Facts Concerning Edmond 2 Freeman (The American Genealogist" - April 1964).

#10 Benjamin 3 Nye (John 2, Benjamin 1). His first wife, Hannah 2 Backhouse, was a sister of the Nathaniel 2 Backhouse who married Remember 3 Nye (above). It is believed that the second wife, called Catherine Nickerson in Vol. I, was a daughter of Hugh Stuart and widow of Nathaniel 3 Nickerson.

#16 Peleg 3 Nye (John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 57). Additional data - from Sandwich Church Records (original to be seen at the library of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston): Elizabeth (Bryant) Nye was admitted to the Sandwich 1st church 17 October 1725 (although we find no record that her children were there baptized). She died in 1770 aet. 80 (ibid.).

#17 Nathan 3 Nye (John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 61). Dorothy (Bryant) Nye admitted to the Sandwich 1st church 25 June 1738. She died in 1772 aet. 80 (Sandwich Church Records, op. cit.). No record of the baptisms of her children there.

#18 Joseph 3 Nye (John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 64). The wife, Mehitable (Bourne) Nye, born Sandwich 2 January 1699/1700; baptized Sandwich 1st church 14 April, 1706, daughter of Dea. Timothy and Temperance (Swift) Bourne. She is named in her father's will. The children, "Temperance, Cornelius, Mary and Joshua" of Joseph and Mehitable Nye were baptized in the Sandwich church 11 January 1735/6; also the daughter Hannah, 22 May 1737 and the son Joseph 28 September 1740.

#84 Joanna Nye (p. 66) died a widow 27 August 1813 (Sandwich Church Records). She married in Sandwich 2 June 1757 Capt. Elisha 5 Bourne, born there 29 November 1733; died there 24 April 1804, testate, naming his wife Joanna, (Barnstable Co. Prob. 31:50).

#85 Hannah 3 Nye (sister of above) is credited as having married the above Capt. Elisha Bourne - but Hannah is not named in her father's will, while Joanna is named and the name of the wife of Capt. Elisha 5 Bourne is of record only as Joanna. (This was probably a printers error.)

#22 Melatiah 3 Nye (Ebenezer 2, Benjamin 1). It is highly probable that the second wife; "Jemima _____" was Jemima 4 Swift, born Sandwich 12 October 1695, daughter of Samuel 3 and Mary Swift. The will of the widow Jemima Nye as given in Vol. I names "my cousin Stephen Swift." It is well known that the term cousin at that period was generally used to designate a nephew, or a niece. In this case Samuel 3 Swift had a son Zaccheus 4 Swift, who would have been a younger brother of Jemima (Swift) Nye, and Zaccheus 4 Swift's son Stephen 5 Swift who was baptized in Sandwich 16 December 1742 is, we believe, the only person of that name who could have been the legatee named in the will of Jemima Nye.

#28 Ichabod 3 Nye (Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 74). "Ichabod Nye of Middleborough" sold for L 148. pd. by Joel 3 Ellis of Plymouth, "all my 100 acres. in the 26 Men's Purchase in sd Middleborough . which formerly belonged to the right of my Honoured Grand Father Benjamin Nye, deceased . this 30 April 1714" (Plym. Co. Deeds 10:345). Vol. I states that at marriage Elizabeth (Bonum) Nye was "of Falmouth." The record calls her "of

#29 Jonathan 3 Nye (Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 74). Vol. I gives the date of 1st marriage to Deborah 3 Blackwell as February 7, 1723; it should be February 7, 1722/3 (see The N. E. H. G. Register, 12:311). She was a daughter of Joshua 2 and Mercy (Fish) Blackwell. Her father's will, dated 15 July 1737 in which she is called "my daughter Deborah Nye" (ibid. 112: 187, 189). The 2nd wife, called simply "Remember _____" was the "Remember Annable" whose intention of marriage was published by David Crocker, Barnstable Town Clerk, 12 December 1755 to "Jonathan Nye of Sandwich," (Barnstable Vital Records - The Mayf. Desc. 27:7). She was Remember 3 Crocker, born Barnstable 26 August 1699, daughter of Sgt. Joseph 2 Crocker by his wife Temperance (Bursley). She was the widow of Samuel 4 Annable, whom she married in Barnstable 26 May 1719. She had by him eight children born in Barnstable, and he died in East Haddam, Conn. about 1748.

#31 Joseph 3 Nye (Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 31). On last line page 31 the name Thankful (Glish) Bodfish should read Thankful (Blish) Bodfish. Vol. I (p. 76) gives three sons, but there was a fourth son James, who died before the date of his father's will, as shown by the Sandwich Church Records: (which show that the father, Joseph Nye was admitted 18 April 1742 and the children "of Joseph and Mary Nye were baptized there: Joseph, baptized 14 November 1742; Silvanus baptized 9 September 1744; James baptized 24 August 1746 and Samuel, baptized 29 March 1749.

#32 Benjamin 3 Nye (Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1), (p. 76) (3rd line from bottom; the name should read (Presbury, and not Presburg). The date of death for subject Benjamin 3 Nye is not shown but the Sandwich Church Records give: "Benjamin Nye died 13 June 1790 act. 93"; also that #119-- "Mary Nye daughter Benjamin admitted 25 June 1758"; also the children: "Mary and Benjamin of Benjamin and Rachel Nye" were baptized there together 12 August 1739, as were the other children of Benjamin Nye by the wife Rachel: #121 Thomas, baptized 7 June 1741. #122 Levi, baptized 10 April 1743. #123 Timothy, baptized 10 August 1746. #124 Jabez born April 1749. #125 Joseph, baptized 5 April 1752. #126 Experience, baptized 20 April 1755 (note Vol. I gives born 30 October 1756). #127 Rachel baptized 9 April 1758 (note Vol. I gives born 12 January 1759) and #128 Remembrance, baptized 18 October 1761.

#35 Isaac 3 Nye (Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1), (p. 78). #144 Mary, . married (says Vol. I) Jonathan Orcutt. Hardwick VR to 1850 shows date of marriage 17 August 1779 to Jonathan Orcutt - Int. "of Shutesbury."

#39 Timothy 3 Nye (Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 81) #163. Vol. I shows

this daughter Susanna, married "_____ Swift." Zacheus 4 Swift (Samuel 3, William 2, William 1), born Sandwich 5 February 1701/2, married first, 15 May 1735, Abigail Foster whose three children were baptized Sandwich 16 December 1742: Elisha, Stephen, Lucy of Zacheus and Abigail Swift. It appears that it was this second son, Stephen who was named in the will of Jemima 4 (Swift) Nye, second wife of #22 Melatiah Nye (see above). At any rate Abigail (Foster) Swift died 10 October 1742 and her widower married in Sandwich 7 May 1752, subject #163 Susanna Nye, - only a short time before the date of her father's will.

#45 Remember 3 Nye (Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 45/47). Vol. I indicates that this subject Remember Nye, born February 28, 1686/7, married _____ Blish, and under #49 Jemima, born February 20, 1695, the guess is made that, "She is not mentioned in her father's will and is probably the mother of Nathan and Mercy Backhouse (Backus)."

The fact is that this Remember 3 Nye (#45), married 29 December 1709 Nathaniel 2 Backhouse (Sandwich town records), born about 1681, son of Francis 1 Backhouse of Saco. She had by him eight children of whom the youngest, Remember Backhouse married (as his second wife), #56 Ichabod 4 Nye, (vide post). Nathaniel 2 Backhouse died testate at Sandwich in 1727. His widow married (2) in Sandwich 5 September 1733, "Joseph Blush of Barnstable" (Sandwich town records). It is, therefore, she and two of her Backhouse children who are named in her father's will.

#50 Lemuel 3 Nye (Nathan 2, Benjamin 1), (p. 87). Vol. I says of him: "The name of his wife is not shown by the records." It is a fact that she pre-deceased him and so is not named in his will, dated 22 July 1762--but her identity is made clear by the following data: "Lemuel Nye, married (int. 30 April 1728) Sarah Jankens (Barnstable Town Records - Mayf. Desc. 34:118) - The Barnstable Church (West Church) Records show the baptisms of the following children, all to "Sarah wife of Lemuel Nye": "Lot, Lemuel, Mary, Sarah, Thankful - 19 October 1740. Also the younger children all to "Sarah wife of Lemuel Nye": Thomas, baptized 12 July 1741. Samuel, baptized 26 June 1743. Nathan, baptized 26 April 1747 and Mercy, baptized 17 September 1749.

This necessitates re-arranging the sequence of birth. Probably this should run as follows:

- i (#192) Mary, born ca. 1729 (because she married in 1753, I think she was the oldest), also because she is first-named among the married daughters in the will.
- ii Dea. Lot (#189).
- iii Lemuel (#190).
- iv Sarah (#193).
- v Thankful (#194).

- vi Thomas (not shown in Vol. I) - he evidently died young. Not named in father's will.
- vii Samuel (#188).
- viii Nathan (not shown in Vol. I); he evidently died young. Not named in father's will.
- ix Mercy (#191). Although she is the first daughter named in her father's will, the fact that she was baptized in 1749 proves she was the youngest, and it is evident that she was named first as the only unmarried daughter at the date of the father's will, so that she was being given the equivalent of her "marriage portion."

Conclusive proof of the identity of the wife, Sarah (Jenkins) Nye is furnished by the fact that Josiah 3 Jenkins (Thomas 2, John 1) in his will, dated Sandwich 1749, gives to his "sister Sarah Nye 6 black chairs, a great chair, table, cupboard," etc. They were children of Thomas 2 and Experience (Hamblen) Jenkins (see "The Mayf. Desc." 22:156/160).

#53 Caleb 3 Nye (Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 90/1). It will be seen that the birth records of the children of this man - or rather those of the younger children are not complete. The Barnstable (West) Church baptisms add something to the picture. The father evidently was not at the time a church member, because the baptisms are shown to "Hannah, wife of Caleb Nye" as follows: Silas, baptized 28 January 1732/3; Joseph, baptized (twin) 24 May 1735; Benjamin, baptized (twin) 24 May 1735; Jemimah (Vol. I gives Simeon - birth date 8 July 1737), baptized 17 July 1737. Ebenezer, baptized 30 March 1739/40; Caleb, baptized 16 May 1742 (twin); Joshua (twin) baptized 16 May 1742; Silas, baptized 14 October 1744; Simeon, baptized 3 May 1747 (it may be found that the birth date for an earlier (8 July 1737) Simeon, given was really for Jemimah!); Hannah, baptized 28 October 1750; Prince, baptized 5 May 1753; Azubah, baptized 11 July 1756.

#54 Nathan 3 Nye (Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 91). Vol. I says that this Nathan Nye "married (1st) Sarah Percival, and (2nd) Patience Percival." But there must be a mix-up here. "The Percivals of Cape Cod" (1938) by Benton P. Crocker shows that John 2 and Mary 3 (Bourne) Percival had a daughter Patience 3 Percival. The Barnstable Co. Probate Records include the will of John Percival of Sandwich, dated 18 August 1737 in which he gives $5. to his "daughter Patience Nye" and $50 to his "unmarried daughter Sarah Percival." Therefore, the daughter Patience had married a Nye before the date of the will, and Sarah was still unmarried. The Barnstable VR show the intention of marriage 24 February 1732/3 of "Nathan Nye, tertius" of Sandwich to "Patience Passavil" (Mayf. Desc. 34:18), and Nathan Nye married 22 September 1733 "Patience Passavil," - the ceremony performed in Barnstable by the Rev. Jonathan Russell (ibid. 34:20). This Patience Percival was baptized in the Sandwich Church, with two younger and two older siblings 13 May 1716. The younger sister, Sarah Percival was there baptized 21 July 1717; and it was she who married 26 July 1739 Reuben Jones (Barnstable VR - Mayf. Desc. 33:169).

#56 Ichabod 4 Nye (Benjamin 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 95). As Vol. I states, there seems to have been no issue by the first wife, Mary Davis. (For an account of her parentage see this writer's article, "Benjamin 4 Davis (1679-1754)" in The American Genealogist (1961) 37:161). Her sister Elizabeth Davis married Ichabod's brother, #61, Seth Nye, (see below).

The second wife, Remember Backhouse, born about 1725, was baptized in the Barnstable (West) Church, together with five older siblings, children "of widow Remember Backhouse" 19 April 1730. She was a daughter of Nathaniel 2 Backhouse by his wife Remember (Nye - #45). The mother married (2) in 1733, Joseph Blish as we have seen. The daughter, Remember Backhouse had a son Isaac, born 19 August 1746 described as "son . of Isaac Gorham ye reputed father" (Barnstable VR 27 Mayf. Desc. 27:8). The Barnstable (West) Church Records show the child baptized 3 May 1747, "Isaac of Remember Backhouse." Ichabod and Remember (Backhouse) were double 2nd cousins).

#61 Seth 4 Nye (Benjamin 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 95). His wife, Elizabeth 5 Davis, born Falmouth 5 February 1712/3, sister of Mary (Davis) Nye, (above) was a daughter of Benjamin 4 and Mary (Robinson) Davis. "Elizabeth Nye wife of Seth Nye was propounded for full communion" in the Falmouth Church, 14 March 1741/2, and Lois, daughter of Seth and Elizabeth Nye was baptized there 16 May 1742.

#62 Benjamin 4 Nye (Benjamin 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 95). Vol. I says that he married Mary Swift, daughter of Moses and Mary Swift of Sandwich. But this Moses and Mary (Foster) Swift had no daughter Mary. The wife of this Benjamin 4 Nye was Mary 5 Swift, born 13 March 1722/3, a daughter of Samuel 4 and Ruth (Hatch) Swift. This identification is proved by the will, dated 16 October 1756 of "Samuel Swift of Sandwich" in which he names "my daughter Mary Nye, wife of Benjamin Nye of Falmouth," to whom he gives 13. 6s. 8d., (Barnst. Co. Prob. 9:360).

#64 John 4 Nye (Ebenezer 3, John 2, Benjamin 1), p. 96). Vol. I gives the date of his death as "in 1804 aged eighty-four years." The Sandwich Church Records give: John Nye died 30 October 1805 aet. 83. Vol. I shows birth records of his first 4 children, and a 5th child Allen, (no birth date shown). The Sandwich Church Records give: "Hannah, wife of John Nye, Jr., adm. church 30 August 1752; and children of John and Hannah Nye baptized: Olive, baptized 17 September 1752; James, baptized 15 October 1752; John, baptized 12 June 1757; Hannah, baptized 12 June 1757

(twin); Thomas, baptized 7 September 1760 (not shown in Vol. I, and Allen, baptized 5 August 1764.

#69 Barnabas 4 Nye (Ebenezer 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 96/7). The wife of this man, Deborah 4 Tobey was baptized in Sandwich 25 August 1739 (S. Church Records), a daughter of Dea. Cornelius 3 Tobey by his 2nd wife, Hannah _____. In his will, dated 3 December 1791, he gives "To my daughter Deborah Nye my Great Bible and my Pew in the Meeting House," (Barnst. Co. Probate 28:133/4). (It should be noted that in "The Tobey Gen. (1905)" by Tobey and Pope, p. 47, the compilers list this daughter "Deborah Nye" as the eldest child, which would mean that her mother was the first wife, Deborah Pope. They did not find that Cornelius had a second wife Hannah _____. But the Sandwich Church Records clearly show that Deborah was the eldest daughter by this second wife.)

#70 Silas 4 Nye (Ebenezer 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 97). The wife of this Silas 4 Nye was Elizabeth 4 Hall, born 22 June 1727, daughter of Elisha 3 and Mary (Howes) Hall. "Elizabeth Nye, wife of Silas," was admitted to the Sandwich Church 2 February 1755. There were baptized, (all to "Silas and Elizabeth"), #238 Keziah, baptized with her younger brother #239 Ebenezer, 20 April 1755; #240 Paul, baptized 9 May 1756; #241 Mary, baptized 4 May 1760. Elizabeth 4 (Hall) Nye had an elder brother - Joshua 4 Hall who married #81 Temperance 4 Nye, (Joseph 3, John 2).

#71 Nathaniel 4 Nye (Peleg 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 97). Vol. I identifies this man's wife as Sarah Foster, but fails to give death dates for him or for his wife. The Sandwich Church Records show: "Nathaniel Nye died 21 March 1797 aet. 77," and "Mrs. Nye, wife of Nathaniel, died 2 February 1795 aet 73." Also "Sarah Foster (now Nye)" admitted 3 April 1737. Children of "Nathaniel and Sarah," baptized: #242 Peleg, baptized 9 October 1743. #243 Peter, baptized 1 February 1745. #244 Nathan, baptized 25 December 1748. #245 Deborah, baptized 11 March 1749/50 (Note: Vol. I gives her birth date as 4 October 1750.) #246 Nathaniel, baptized 26 April 1752. #247 Hannah, baptized 20 March 1757. #248 Esther, baptized 16 September 1759. #249 Shadrach, baptized 10 May 1761.

#73 Joseph 4 Nye (Peleg 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 98). Sandwich Church Records give the date of his death: "Joseph Nye, died 26 January 1790 aet. 66." Vol. I says "his widow survived him," and Sandwich Church Records confirm this: "Betty Nye died 5 April 1790 aet. 56." She probably, therefore, was born about 1738.

#77 Stephen 4 Nye (Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1), (pp. 98/9). The Sandwich Church Records confirm the date of his death, 6 July 1810, and add "aet. 90." His wife, Maria Bourne was born Sandwich 24 June 1727. Sandwich Church Records confirm the date of her death, but show "aet. 89," rather than "84" as given in Vol. I. Actually, she would have been 87 years old at her death. She was a daughter of Jonathan 4 Bourne, (Nathan 3, Elisha 2, Richard 1), by his first wife, Hannah (Dillingham). She was baptized in the Sandwich Church with her two younger siblings, John and Elisha Bourne, 9 November 1735. Of these Elisha 4 Bourne married #84 Joanna 4 Nye, daughter of #18 Joseph 3 Nye. The will, dated 23 July 1761 of Nathan 3 Bourne names his granddaughter "Maria Nye" (Barnst. Co. Prob. 12:406). The will, dated 1 November 1754, of her father Jonathan 4 Bourne of Sandwich, gives "To my daughter Maria Nye L 26. 13s. 8d. . provided she confirms the division and sale I made of lands at Harwich that came to my children by their grandfather Dillingham's will, (ibid. 9:109). Maria Nye was admitted 22 June 1760 to the Sandwich Church and the children: "Elisha, John, Nathan, Hannah, Stephen, Susannah, Abigail, - of Stephen and Maria Nye" were there baptized 29 June 1760. So with the younger children: #267 William, baptized 24 August 1760; #268 Zenas, baptized 5 June 1763; #269 Rebecca, baptized 30 March 1766; #270 Christina, baptized 16 October 1768 and #271 Sabra, baptized 14 April 1771 who married about 1792 George 5 Ellis, baptized Sandwich 2 August 1767, son of Joshua 4 and Innocent (Hammond) Ellis of Sandwich. They removed to Fairfield, Me.

#262 Hannah, born 10 May, 1751; baptized 29 June 1760; married about 1769 Matthias 4 Tobey, born Sandwich 29 January 1744/5; died Machias, Me., 7 November 1818. She died Machias 27 September 1835.

#78 Nathan 4 Nye (Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1), (p. 99). He "died 16 June 1808 in his 87th year" (Rochester, Mass. VR to 1850). His wife Elizabeth Bodfish, was a daughter of John and #26 Sarah 3 (Nye) Bodfish, so they were 2nd cousins.

#80 William 4 Nye (Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 119/120). This William 4 Nye "died 6 July 1806, aet. 74" (Sandwich Church Records). Vol. I says: "This is probably the William Nye who married Abigail Pope of Sandwich February 6, 1766." This "probably" is confirmed by the Sandwich Church Records where we find baptisms of the children of "William and Abigail Nye": William and Elisha, baptized 29 November 1772 (Nos. 277 and 278), plus a third child, (not listed in Vol. I): Mary, baptized 26 January 1777. A study of the Pope family confirms that this was Abigail 5 Pope, born Sandwich 28 July 1747; baptized there 23 August 1747, daughter of John 4 and Mercy (Swift) Pope of Sandwich. "Abigail Nye, William's wife" was listed on the Sandwich Church catalogue of living members 18 April 1787. She may have been the "Abigail Nye" who died 24 February 1795 "aet. 68", but if so the age at death is wrong. It is more likely that this death record refers to:

#74 Abigail 4 Nye, born 5 March 1725/6 who was living, unmarried in 1761, when named in her father, #16 Peleg 3 Nye's Will, (q. v., p. 58).

#86 Esq. Joseph 4 Nye (Joseph 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 100). It is a curious fact that although this man was called "Esqr." and his wife came of a prominent family, and despite the fact that he was baptized in the Sandwich Church (28 September 1740), - he did not have his children baptized there. He died 7 May 1796, called "Joseph Nye, Esqr., aet. 55." The Sandwich 1790 census lists him also as Joseph Nye "Esqr.," with a family of 3 males over 16; 4 under 16; 5 females and 2 others, (probably servants). His wife, Catherine Sturges, born about 1751: "Catherine Nye, died 14 December 1815 aet. 66, widow of Joseph Nye Esqr.," daughter of Jonathan 4 Sturges, (Thomas 3, Thomas 2, Edward 1), by his wife Hannah (Newcomb) Sturges, daughter of William and Bathsheba (Bourne) Newcomb. Vol. I shows the birth dates of only the three eldest children, and here the baptismal records do not help. Possibly the family lived elsewhere for some years. However, the Sandwich Church Records do show some death records as follows: #281 Martha, born 24 March 1772; "died 20 June 1794 aet. 22 years." #284 Persis, "died 2 August 1807 aet. 19" (hence, born about 1788 must have been one of the youngest of the children). "(#287) Catherine, died 25 June 1797 aet. 13" (hence born about 1784). (We suspect that the birth date given for #288 Franklin is not correct, since the mother would in 1795 have been about 44).

#98 Solomon 4 Nye (Meletiah 3, Ebenezer 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 102/103). The birth date for #314 Paul, is given in Vol. I as 1705; evidently should be 1765.

#99 Shubal 4 Nye (Meletiah 3, Ebenezer 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 103). The intention of his first marriage - to Thankful 5 Davis is dated 11 September 1748 (Falmouth Town Records). She, born Falmouth 1 August 1724; died there 26 May 1782. She was a daughter of Benjamin 4 Davis of Falmouth by his second wife Mary 4 (called also Marah) Dimmock, daughter of John 3 and Elizabeth (Lumbert) Dimmock of Falmouth. Her two older half-sisters Mary and Elizabeth had married #56 Ichabod Nye and #61 Seth Nye, (q. v.). See this writer's article in The American Genealogist (July 1961 - 37:163).

#107 George 4 Nye (Ichabod 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 104/5). The first wife, Sarah 4 Blackwell, was a daughter of Caleb 3 and Bethia 3 (Taber) Blackwell - see the article by Lydia B. (Phinney) Brownson and this writer in The N. E. H. G. Register - July 1963 - 118:189/193). The will, dated 9 November 1762 of Caleb Blackwell names his "two grandsons John Nye and Philip Nye" (#332 and #333), "sons of my daughter Sarah Nye, deceased." Vol. I does not show the date of the first marriage, but Rochester VR to 1850 shows: 31 December 1747.

#108 Ichabod 4 Nye (Ichabod 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 105/6). The first wife, Bethia Blackwell, born Rochester, Mass. 31 December 1722, was a sister of Sarah Blackwell who married #107 George Nye (above). Her father's will names his "daughter Bethia Nye" (see The Register (op. cit., 118:193).

#109 Jonathan 4 Nye, Jr. (Jonathan 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 106). Vol. I, in reference to the eldest child of this family, given as William (#342), born June 1758 remarks that "The Sandwich records" and the "Freeman Genealogy" do not include (#342) William among (#109) Jonathan's children. Maj. Charles M. Nye of DeWitt, Ia., is authority for including William in this family."

But the Sandwich Church Records, once again, confirm this identification and show that before the family removed to Hardwick there were not one but two children baptized in Sandwich! "Rebecca Nye, wife of Jonathan, Jr. admitted 16 July 1758; William, baptized 23 July 1758, son of Jonathan Nye, Jr. and Rebecca. Joanna (should become #342-a), baptized 27 January 1760, daughter Jonathan Nye, Jr. and Rebecca.

#113 Joshua 4 Nye (Jonathan 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1), (pp. 106/7). Vol. I "He married in 1758, Lydia, daughter of Benjamin Jenkins." It may have been a bit earlier, since David Crocker, Barnstable Town Clerk published the intention 7 May 1756 of Joshua Nye and Lydia Jenkins. She was a daughter, Lydia, born 16 March 1735/6; baptized Barnst. (West) Church 21 March 1735/6, of Benjamin and Mehitable (Blish) Jenkins. #349 Mehitable Nye, baptized 10 August 1758 (Barnst. (West) Church Records). Called "Mehitable, daughter Lydia, wife of Joshua Nye."

#115 Dea. Silvanus 4 Nye (Joseph 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 108/9). Vol. I gives the date of his will, 8 July 1820, proved 14 November 1820, but not the date of death. The Sandwich Church Records, however, show: "Dea. Silvanus Nye, drowned 27 August 1820." Vol. I says of his wife only that "his will . gives his wife's name as Rebecca." But Sandwich Town Records shows the marriage 6 February 1786 of Silvanus Nye to Rebecca Parker. This was Rebecca 4 Parker, born Barnstable 31 August 1747, a daughter of Samuel 3 and Desire 5 (Freeman) Parker, through whom descendants can trace back to John Howland the Mayflower passenger. The will, dated 1 March 1766 of Samuel 3 Parker of Barnstable gives L20. to Rebecca, one of his five unmarried daughters. The will, dated 2 December 1777 of her widowed mother Desire (Freeman) Parker gives: . . "to my daughter Rebecca Nye, my negro girl called B ashua and 24 Spanish Milled dollars for her to purchase a silver cane with, together with the household goods I gave her in my lifetime." The will dated 19 December 1799 of her maiden sister Hannah 4 Parker of Barnstable gives "to my sister Rebecca Nye" a share of her wearing apparel, jewelry and residuary estate, (see this writer's article "Robert Parker of Barnstable," the N. E.

H.G. Register - January 1959 - 113:18/21). This Rebecca Parker was admitted to the Sandwich Church 18 August 1771. The baptisms of the children of "Silvanus and Rebecca Nye" also appear on the Church Records: #364 Lydia, baptized 16 March 1777; #365 Silvanus, baptized 25 April 1779 (for some reason Vol. I says this child was "baptized at Harwich (see page 194); #365 Desire, baptized 31 March 1782; #367 Joseph, baptized (not recorded in Sandwich, - Vol. I says he was born in Harwich also, and perhaps baptized there); #368 Rebecca, baptized 15 June 1788; #369 Samuel, baptized 7 March 1790. Dea. Silvanus Nye in Sandwich 1790 Census with a family of 1 male over 16; 3 under 16; 4 females and two other persons, probably servants.

#121 Thomas 4 Nye (Benjamin 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1), (p. 111). Died 9 April 1788, aet. 47 (Sandwich Church Records). His wife, - was Thankful Blossom, born Barnstable 5 September, baptized Barnstable (West) Church 15 September 1745; died Sandwich 13 March 1794 aet. 49 (Sandwich Church Records). Children of "Thomas and Thankful Nye" baptized Sandwich Church: #386 Samuel and #387 Hannah, baptized 29 November 1772; #388 Levi, baptized 23 May 1773; #389 Patience, baptized 1 October 1775; #391 Remember, baptized 14 November 1779 (Note: Vol. I lists her as younger than Isaiah); #390 Isaiah, baptized 30 May 1784; #388 Levi 5 Nye had wife Patience Bassett, who died 14 September 1800, aet. 26 (Sandwich Church Records); #389 Patience Nye, married ca. 1775, John 5 Tobey. She died May 1855.

#120 Benjamin 4 Nye (Benjamin 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 110/1). Vol. I shows birth records for only 4 of the 10 children of this couple. The Sandwich Church Records enable us to complete the record: All children baptized to "Benjamin Junr. and Mary Nye":

- i Abigail, (born 28 September 1766) #377 - baptized 19 September 1772, with two younger siblings:
- ii #378 Temperance (born 22 September 1768) and
- iii #379 Mary, (born 26 February 1771);
- iv Elisha (birth not recorded), no number in Vol. I; baptized 13 September 1773.
- v Rachel, #383 (birth not recorded); baptized 5 May 1776 (twin of Mehitable); married 14 March 1820 Daniel 6 Parker, born 12 May 1801; died before 30 October 1854. The intestate estate of the widow Rachel (Nye) Parker was distributed on that date between her siblings, Joshua Nye, Sr., Susan (Nye) Lewis and (Cynthia?) (Nye) Kelso;
- vi Mehitable (#378) twin of above, baptized 5 May 1776.
- vii Joshua (born 22 August 1778) baptized 8 November 1778; named in the will, 1854 of his sister Rachel, yet Vol. I says died 7 April 1840 Franklin Co., Ind.; #381 Cynthia, baptized 31 December 1780; #382 Benjamin, baptized 13 August 1786.

For #383 Rachel 5 Nye - see N. E. H. G. Register (October 1959 - 118: 249). There is a discrepancy here in the naming of the heirs.

#122 Dea. Levi 4 Nye (Benjamin 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1), (pp. 111/112). Vol. I says that he removed in 1773 to Lee, Mass., but before doing so the first four children were baptized in the Sandwich Church, to "Levi and Sarah Nye": #392 Joshua, baptized 29 May 1768; #393 Benjamin, baptized 17 June 1770; #394 and 5 (twins) Mary, baptized 8 November 1772 and Rachel, baptized 8 November 1772.

#147 Jonathan 4 Nye (Isaac 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 119/120). He married in Sandwich 28 March 1782 Elizabeth (called Betty 5) Ellis, daughter of Joel 4 and Phebe 5 (Freeman) Ellis. Her mother, Phebe 5 Freeman, was a niece of his mother Sarah 4 Freeman, and Betty 5 (Ellis) had two descents of her own from Benjamin 1 Nye. But their daughter: #434 Phebe 5 Nye, born 5 February 1784; died 5 February 1816, aet 32; married 29 March 1814 Capt. Thomas 6 Ellis, born Plympton 2 April 1783, son of Joel 5 and Annis (Pratt) Ellis and her husband was also a descendant on two separate lines of Benjamin 1 Nye. He was a first cousin of his wife.

#152 Jonathan 4 Nye (David 3, Jonathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 123/4). Vol. I says this man " . married Elizabeth Irish. The date of his death is not shown (Middleboro Records show married March 18, 1778 of Jonathan Nye and Mrs. Eunice Pratt)." . We find a deed which confirms the identity of Eunice Pratt: "Prince Allen and Abigail his wife of Dartmouth and Jonathan Nye and Eunice his wife of Middleborough . sold . for L 60. pd. by Stephen Ellis of Plimpton . 10 acres of land . being part of the homestead that our honoured Father Joshua Pratt, late of Plimpton, deceased" . . (owned) . 27 May 1778 (Plymouth Co. Deed 59:160). By the sheerest of chance copies of affidavits dated 1832 by "Jonathan Nye of Fairfield, Maine" and Prince Nye of Falmouth were obtained, both confirming that they served with Nathan 5 Ellis (who is called "of Sandwich, Mass. .", in the Revolutionary War. Now Nathan Ellis deposed that he first enlisted as a resident of Rochester, Mass., and later from Middleborough. This item of information is placed here as a clue to the whereabouts of Jonathan 4 Ellis, whose death the compilers of Vol. I did not find. We think this clue may be useful because subject Jonathan Nye had a brother Prince Nye (#161) of whom the compilers could find no further record after noting the Revolutionary service. Also subject Jonathan 4 Nye had a sister Zerviah 4 Nye (#150), for whom his daughter Zerviah (#451) was named. We have found nothing to add to the identity of the alleged wife Elizabeth Irish.

#165 Edmund 4 Nye (Timothy 3, Caleb 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 126/127). His wife Mary 4 Nye (#192) was perhaps the eldest of the children of Lemuel 3 (#50) and Sarah (Jenkins) Nye. She probably was born about 1729 or 1731.

She was baptized, as we have seen, with four of her siblings in the Sandwich Church 19 October 1740. She is named in her father's will, dated 22 July 1762.

#479 Sarah 5 Nye, (daughter of above). Vol. I shows that this Sarah 5 Nye married a "James Parker of Barnstable" and lists nine children born to them, (surname Parker). He was James 4 Parker, born Barnstable 28 July 1747; died Osterville, Mass. 6 November 1802. Subject Sarah Nye, who must have been born about 1758, married him 30 July 1779. She died Osterville 31 January, 1840, (gravestone, Osterville Cem.). Vol. I gives them nine of their eleven children, the dates and data of this family can be seen in detail in the N. E. H. G. Register (April 1959) 118:119/121).

#190 Lemuel 4 Nye (Lemuel 3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 133). Vol. I shows date of Marriage October 27, 1757. The int., published 29 April 1757 calls him "Lemuel Nye Junr. of Sandwich." She was Remember 5 Crocker, born 30 November 1757, daughter of Thomas 4 and Rebecca (Hamblen) Crocker. For an account of Rebecca (Hamblen) Crocker see The American Genealogist (October 1963) 39:199. She had descent from the Mayflower passengers John Howland, John Tilley, Elizabeth Tilley. The daughter:

#545 Esther 5 Nye, born 19 February 1759; married 10 December 1780 Peter 5 Nye (3243) (vide post).

#196 Joseph 4 Nye (Caleb 3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 133/135). Vol. I says, "He married in Hardwick, Mass. (1st) Thankful Goodspeed," but the Barnstable VR show the intention, publ. 28 May 1757 of Joseph Nye, Junr. of Sandwich and Thankful Goodspeed. She was presumably the Thankful Goodspeed, born 10 March 1736, daughter of "Ebenezer 3rd and Elizabeth (Bodfish) Goodspeed, who was baptized in the Barnstable (West) Church 17 September 1738 (see Mayf. Desc. 34:18; 33:146, etc.).

#197 Capt. Benjamin 4 Nye (Caleb 3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 135/7). Int. to marry published of "Benjamin Nye, Junr., of Sandwich "19 March 1757 to Susannah Phinney" (Barnstable VR - Mayf. Desc. 25:129).

#199 Ebenezer 4 Nye (Caleb 3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 138/139). Vol. I says, "He married Pamela Sturges and lived in Oakham, Mass." Actually, the marriage intention was published by Isaac Hinckley, Jr., town clerk of Barnstable of "Ebenezer Nye 16 June 1759 to Melatiah Sturges," (Barnstable VR Mayf. Desc. 25:130). She was born 11 October 1739 (Barnst. VR., May. Des. 33:120), baptized 5 October 1739, a daughter of John and Melatiah (Crocker) Sturges of Barnstable.

#221 John 5 Nye (Benjamin 4-3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 148). He married in Falmouth, as shown, (1) Abigail 5 Gifford. She was born about 1748, daughter Benjamin 4 and his 2nd wife Hannah (Eldred) Gifford of Falmouth. The will of Benjamin 4 Gifford, dated 22 March 1769 names "My daughter Abigail Nye." Vol. I gives the name of the 2nd wife of this John 5 Nye as "Phebe _____." She was Phebe 5 Gifford, born about 1750, a daughter of Christopher 4 and (#67) Remember (Nye) Gifford. This Phebe Gifford married (1) Jesse Noble 29 December 1768. She had by him 4 children. They moved to Nova Scotia, but his intestate estate was presented for probate at the Barnstable Court 2 July 1798, when the widow Phebe Noble was appointed administratrix. A month later she married John 5 Nye. #629 Hannah 6 Nye, born 17 July 1769; died Sandwich 9 March, 1852 aet. 82; married there 1 February 1791 Dea. Bethuel 5 Bourne, born there 22 January 1765; died there 19 September 1838, son of Maj. Thomas 4 and Mary (Randall) Bourne.

#224 Iram 5 Nye (Benjamin 4-3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 150/151). His wife Eleanor 5 Ellis, born Sandwich 1 November 1752, daughter of Elijah 4 Ellis (Gideon 3).

#229 Allen 5 Nye (John 4, Ebenezer 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 151/153) baptized Sandwich 5 August 1764. Allen Nye and "Rebecca Nye, wife of Allen" were admitted to the Sandwich Church 28 August 1808.

#232 Barnabas 5 Nye (Barnabas 4, Ebenezer 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 153). His wife, "Love, wife of Barnabas Nye, died 7 September, 1811 aet 38" (Sandwich Church Records).

#239 Ebenezer 5 Nye (Silas 4, Ebenezer 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 154/155) Vol. I does not give the name of his wife. The Sandwich Church Records, again, help here: "Phebe, wife of Ebenezer Ellis" admitted to the Church 3 April 1796. "Keziah, Joshua, Paul, Rebecca, George-Brown and Elizabeth (children) of Ebenezer and Phebe Nye," baptized together 10 July 1796. She may possibly have been Phebe 5 Ellis, born Sandwich 31 August, baptized 7 October 1764, daughter of Benjamin 3 and Elizabeth (Tupper) Ellis. The suggestion is made because there was no other Phebe born in Sandwich about this time, and the suggested Phebe Ellis had sisters Rebecca and Elizabeth, (for whom her daughters may have been named). On the other hand she could have been a Phebe Brown (a name not associated with Sandwich), for whom her son George-Brown Nye (not George-Bonum Nye as given in Vol. I) was named. #700 George B. Nye, was lost at sea 8 August 1815, aet 24, (Sandwich Church Records).

#242 Peleg 5 Nye (Nathaniel 4, Peleg 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 155/6). Peleg and Sarah Nye admitted to the Sandwich church 29 April 1799; and "Abigail, Sarah and Bethuel (children) of Peleg and Sarah Nye" baptized together 10 October 1799. This suggests that the list of children given by Vol. I for this couple is incomplete.

#243 Peter 5 Nye (Nathaniel 4, Peleg 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 157) Vol. I states: "Records give the mother of Prince as Esther, daughter of Lemuel Nye (#190) and also show Olive, wife of Peter Nye died 1796." Barnstable Town Records 3:177 show: Peter Nye married 10 December 1780 Easter Nye, (see also p. 133). Vol. I says #708 James Nye, (no birth date); "died 1776." (We find no confirming record of this.) Should it have been 1786? Sandwich Records show that Peter Nye was admitted to the Sandwich Church 8 January, 1788. Only two children are of record to "Peter and Esther Nye": (709) Prince, baptized 8 June 1788 and (#710) Josiah, baptized 2 May 1790.

#246 Nathaniel 5 Nye (Nathaniel 4, Peleg 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 158/159). A search of the Barnstable Church Records may reveal more of the children by this man's first wife. Vol. I says of the 2nd wife only that her name was "Celia ____." To this we can add that she was Celia 4 Tobey, born 21 May 1752; baptized 28 June 1752 (Sandwich Town and Church Records), daughter of Samuel 3 and Experience 4 Ellis) Tobey. She married (1) in Sandwich 10 October 1773 Jonathan 6 Ellis. He died intestate and his widow married about 1785 subject Nathaniel 5 Nye. Regarding the intestate estate of Jonathan Ellis, the Court was petitioned 7 November 1787 "to make allowance unto Celia Ellis, now Celia Nye, wife of Nathaniel Nye." Nathaniel Nye was appointed guardian, also, to the two children of his wife's marriage to Jonathan Ellis (Barnst. Co. Probates 25:849 and 26:394, 398). The children "of Nathaniel and Celia Nye" baptized in the Sandwich church were: Jonathan-Ellis Nye, baptized 13 August, 1786; Elizabeth-Chipman Nye, baptized 24 August 1788; Celia, baptized 3 April, 1791; Nathaniel, baptized 21 July 1793 and Abraham-Williams Nye, baptized 17 July 1796.

#251 Bartlett 5 Nye (Joseph 4, Peleg 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 160/161). His wife was Deborah 5 Ellis, baptized Sandwich Church 19 May 1765, daughter of Joshua 4 and Innocent (Hammond) Ellis. Her three siblings married, respectively: #266 Jonathan 5 Nye and #267 William 5 Nye and #271 Sabra 5 Nye, children of #77 Stephen 4 Nye. In the Barnstable Co. Deed Registry at Barnstable there is a deed in the Sandwich Town Book of Deeds, dated 17 March 1797 which sets forth that "Bartlett Nye of Fairfield in the County of Lincoln" (Maine) and "Deborah his wife, in her right," together with her above siblings, renounced further claim to Sandwich property, as "Heirs of Joshua Ellis, late of Sandwich, deceased."

#261 Adj. Nathan 5 Nye (Stephen 4, Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 168/9) "Hannah Nye, Nathaniel's wife" was admitted to the Sandwich Church 10 August 1788. "Obed-Butler, Maria, Elizabeth, Daniel, Nathan (children) of Nathan and Hannah Nye were there baptized together 24 August 1788. There follows baptism of Charles Nye, 7 November 1790; Hannah Nye 7 November 1790; Fanny, 3 March 1795. The church records show: "Mrs. Nye, wife of Nathan, died 16 June 1795," but the father evidently was not a member of the church until he was admitted 14 May 1807. The 2nd wife, Sarah (Fessenden) Allen was a daughter of Benjamin and Sarah (Newcomb) Fessenden and the widow of Capt. Moses Allen, who died Sandwich 11 April 1794 aet. 54. She had by him 5 children (surname Allen).

#263 Stephen 5 Nye (Stephen 4, Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 169/170). Vol. I fails to name his wife, and names only five of his seven children, nor does it show his date of death. The Church Records of Sandwich again help here: They show "Stephen Nye Junr, died 25 March 1791, aet. 40/50." His wife was Elizabeth 5 Tobey, born Sandwich 20 May 1757 (baptized Sandwich Church 22 May 1757); died - "Elizabeth Nye, aet. 38 or 36" (ibid.). She was a daughter of Eliakim 3 and Abigail (Bassett) Tobey. The will, dated 23 February 1780 of Eliakim Tobey of Sandwich names his "daughter Elizabeth Nye," (Barnst. Co. Probate 2:5). The children, Alvin Nye (#786) and Ansel Nye (#787) described as "sons of my daughter Lucy Nye, deceased," also are named in this will, proving that the wives of subject (#263) Stephen 5 Nye and (#259) Elisha 5 Nye, (see p. 164), were sisters.

The children, baptized to "Stephen, Junr. and Elizabeth Nye" (Sandwich Church Records) were:

- i Heman 6, baptized 6 December 1778; died 24 October 1798 "aet. 21" (Sandwich Church Records).
- ii (#816) Eliakim, baptized 16 April 1780.
- iii (#817) Lucy, baptized 6 April 1783.
- iv (#818) Elizabeth, (called Betty in Vol. I), baptized 10 July 1786.
- v Abigail, baptized 22 April 1787.
- vi (#819) "Asel," (called Ansel, Anselm in Vol. I) baptized 26 April 1789.
- vii (#820) "child of Stephen Nye, Jr." (Sand. Church Records, - called Stephen in Vol. I), died Infant - 10 April 1793.

#267 Capt. William 5 Nye (Stephen 4, Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 170/1). His wife was Elizabeth 5 (called Betsey) Ellis, born Sandwich 23 August 1762; baptized there 11 November 1764, daughter of Joshua 4 and Innocent (Hammond) Ellis. She was also a sister of (#251) Bartlett 5 Nye and of (#266) Jonathan 5 Nye (q. v.). "William Nye of Sandwich, mariner, and Elizabeth his wife in her right". were among the heirs of Joshua 4 Ellis, by a deed dated 7 March 1797 (Barnstable Co. Deeds - Sandwich Town Book 2:205).

#266 Jonathan 5 Nye (Stephen 4, Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 170).

Vol. I does not refer to his wife, although two sons are named. But subject Jonathan 5 Nye married, probably about 1780, Mercy 5 Ellis, born about 1760; baptized Sandwich Church 11 November 1764, daughter of Joshua 4 and Innocent (Hammond) Ellis of Sandwich. He probably removed soon after marriage to Maine. "Jonathan Nye of Fairfield in the Co. of Lincoln" (Maine), and Mercy his wife in her right, "were among the heirs of Joshua 4 Ellis who quitclaimed by a Barnstable Co. Deed, 7 March 1797). His wife was a sister of Elizabeth Ellis who married (#267) Capt. William Nye; of Deborah Ellis who married (#251) Bartlett Nye and of George Ellis who married (#271) Sabra Nye.

#268 Zenas 5 Nye (Stephen 4, Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 172). The Sandwich Church Records have a bit to add here: "Mary, wife of Zenas Nye admitted 9 October 1791. Children baptized, all designated as children "of Zenas and Mary Nye":

- i (#831) Stephen, baptized 30 October 1791; died "at the Isle of Man 9 September 1805, aet. 20".
- ii (#832) Shadrach, baptized 30 October 1791; died "at Jamaica 1 January 1805 aet. 18".
- iii (#833) Seth, baptized 30 October 1791.
- iv (#834) Abraham, baptized 23 June 1793.
- v (#835) Experience-Hatch, baptized 12 July 1795.
- vi (#836) Mary, baptized 12 November 1797.
- vii (#837) Zenas, baptized 24 November 1799.

#278 Elisha 5 Nye (William 4, Nathan 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 173/4). Vol. I lists but a single child for this man. Records show that four children "of Elisha Nye" died in infancy:

- i "a child," (born ca. 1804), "died 23 August 1810 aet 6 years."
- ii "a child," (born September 1808), died 10 October 1808 aet. 10 weeks."
- iii "a child," (born ca. 1809), "died September 1809 infant."
- iv "a child," (born ca. 1811), "died 1816 aet. 5 years."

#283 Sturges 5 Nye (Joseph 4, Joseph 3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 174). The Sandwich Record of Deaths, Sandwich Church Records, give: Sturges Nye died 25 February 1806 aet. 30". "Abigail, wid. Sturges Nye, died 24 March, 1813. Catherine (#858) died #13 April 1813 aet. 15." Sary (#862) died "Sturges Nye's child, 16 June 1806 aet. 5 mos." (#) Henry, son Sturges, died 23 February, 1809, aet. 6 yrs. 10 mo." (Note: Was he a twin of the son Sturges?--born 26 April 1802?)

#476 Moses 5 Nye (Edmond 4, Timothy 3, Caleb 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 209. 210). The Sandwich Church Records show: "Mrs. Nye, wife of Moses died 12 November 1792."

#543 Stephen 5 Nye (Lot 4, Lemuel 3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 224/225). Vol. I shows that "he married Abigail Crocker" (no date given). The unpublished Barnstable Town Records at Hyannis show "Stephen Nye of Sandwich, intent to marry 21 September 1776 Abigail Crocker" and "Stephen Nye of Sandwich married 12 December 1786" (sic. ! - evidently should be 1776).

#547 Asa 5 Nye (Lemuel 4-3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (pp. 227/8). This man married 27 November 1788 Mercy-Bursley 5 Parker, born Barnstable 9 September, 1769; died 8 June 1851, daughter of Dr. Daniel 4 and Mercy (Jenkins) Parker. The will of Daniel 5 Parker of Barnstable, dated 1 April 1808, names "my daughter Mercy Nye" (see the N. E. H. G. Register April 1959 - 118:115).

#620 Maj. Joshua 6 Nye (Elihu 4, Seth 4, Benjamin 3, John 2, Benjamin 1). (pp. 243/244). Vol. I says this Joshua Nye married in 1810 Clarissa Gibbs and resided in Falmouth. "The date of the marriage was 10 December 1810. She was Clarissa 6 Gibbs, born Sandwich 16 March 1790; baptized Sandwich Church 27 June 1790, a daughter of Silvanus 5 and Catherine (Tobey) Gibbs of Sandwich. Her sisters Hannah 6 Gibbs and Joanna 6 Gibbs married Warren 6 Nye, (see below).

#633 Warren 6 Nye (John 5, Benjamin 4-3, John 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 245). Vol. I gives the names and dates of marriages of the two wives of this man. It does not explain that the first wife was Joanna 6 Gibbs, born Sandwich 12 October 1779; baptized there 5 March 1780. She died: "Joanna wife Warren Gibbs of Falmouth, 27 October 1800, aet. 21 years." The second wife, "Hannah 6 Gibbs, born 20 June 1777; baptized 27 July 1777; died 24 September 1854 aet. 75 years." She was the slightly older sister of her husband's first wife. Both were daughters of Silvanus 5 and Catherine 5 (Tobey) Gibbs of Sandwich. Their sister, Clarissa 6 Gibbs, married (#620) Maj. Joshua 6 Nye.

#535 Isaac 5 Nye (Samuel 4, Lemuel 3, Nathan 2, Benjamin 1) (p. 132). Vol. I does not carry this man forward. Perhaps he died s.p.. But his mother was Maria 5 Bourne, daughter Job 4 and Lydia (Swift) Bourne. The will, dated 20 July 1773 of Isaac 4 Bourne of Sandwich, names "my kinsman Isaac Nye, son of Samuel Nye and Maria his wife and grandson of my brother Job Bourne."

FOURTH GENERATION

150--ZERVIAH NYE (David 37, Jonathan 5, Benjamin 1), born May 16, 1736. She married as his second wife on January 1, 1767, Reverend Ebenezer Jones, born October 1, 1726 at Taunton, Mass. She had:

- i Daughter, born November 24, 1767; died young.
- ii Lois Jones, born January 11, 1769.
- iii Ephraim Jones, born June 17, 1771.
- iv Jonathan Jones, born December 7, 1773.

169--JOHN NYE (John 40, Caleb 7, Benjamin 1), born in South Kingston, R. I., about 1715. He was named as executor of his mother's will. The census of 1776 shows his family as two males over sixteen years old; two males under sixteen; two females over sixteen; and one female under sixteen. The 1907 genealogy gives the above and lists children as follows:
 482 Stephen.
 483 James, born May 13, 1758.
 484 John, born about 1760.

All the above have extensive families of descendants listed in the Genealogy. New information furnished for this volume disputes the accuracy of the above list of children. Determination of the total facts is made difficult by the fact that the widow Sarah of John (40) had changed the family name to Ney, which spelling carried for several generations. She, Sarah Cooke Ney, resided in the westerly part of Rhode Island, called Charleston, and her son resided in that part of Charleston later becoming Richmond in 1747. Town council records of South Kingston show "November 17, 1746, Administration was granted to John Ney of Charleston, R. I., on the estate of honored mother, Sarah Ney." Land records of Exeter, R. I., show: "May 19, 1753, John Ney of Richmond, R. I., bought 100 acres of land in Exeter, R. I. for 300 pounds beginning at a small maple tree marked of both sides on Wood River running southerly from the side of the river to Samuel Barbers land then Northeasterly on his line, then northwesterly to make 100 acres." Colonial records of Rhode Island show John Ney was made freeman of Exeter, R. I. May 1758. The will of this John Ney was dated March 4, 1797 and recorded October 7, 1800 and gives "To my beloved son, Isaac Ney, one-half of my farm, the said farm to be divided by an equal number of acres beginning at Wood River at one-half the distance of the farm so that both farms shall be of an equal width with one-half the profits of the orchard for three years." The other half he gives "To my well-beloved son, Elias Ney." Isaac and Elias were to decide between themselves which half each was to have. The daughter, Mary Ney, was to have a cow, etc. A grandson, John Ney, was to have 15 silver dollars. The remainder of the estate (personal) was to be divided between: "My four children: Isaac Ney, Elias Ney, Elizabeth Barber, and Mary Ney." It is of interest that the birthdate and residence of Elias, listed below, could not be too different from that of Isaac (501) attributed as son of Isaac (173); also the firstborn son of Isaac (501) was named John. The possibility must be considered that Isaac (501) may have been the Isaac Ney listed above. It is beyond the scope of this book to resolve these two separate families attributed to John Nye. One conjecture is that there were two John Nye families in the area at the same time. Another possibility is that John (169) lost his first wife, and taking a younger wife, raised a second family. This conjecture fits the dates better, as the birthdate of Elias occurred when John the elder was 59 years of age! Preferring the latter assumption, it is elected to add these children as follows:

*484b Elias, born August 1774.

484c Elizabeth, married to _____ Barber.

484d Mary.

FIFTH GENERATION

318--SYLVANUS NYE (Shubal 99, Meletiah 22, Ebenezer 4, Benjamin 1), born at Falmouth, Mass. February 3, 1753 (not August 1, 1753). He married February 2, 1774, Sylvina Barlow, and removed to South Amenia, N. Y. where he died March 5, 1841. During the Revolution he served in the 6th Dutchess County Militia. She died October 15, 1838.

Children:

- 919 David, born August 9, 1779; married May 14, 1808; died January 18, 1856.
- 920 Meletiah, born March 25, 1782; died June 23, 1864.
- *921 Ebenezer, born November 28, 1784; married May 8, 1808; died September 29, 1824.
- *922 Sylvanus, born July 29, 1787; married February 11, 1810.
- 922a Sarah, born November 17, 1774; died April 3, 1858.
- 922b Shubal, born December 24, 1776; married December 9, 1798; died August 2, 1855.
- 922c Susan Davis, born at Amenia, Dutchess Co., N. Y., August 13, 1790. She married Adam Hutchison in Augusta, Ga. on February 10, 1825. She died in Amenia, N. Y. on March 29, 1867. Adam Hutchison was born at Woodstone, Ayrshire, Scotland on March 14, 1781. (His first wife was Elizabeth Anderson of Charleston, S. C. who died October 8, 1819.) Adam Hutchison died in Fla. on September 6, 1834. She had:
 - i Sylvanus Nye Hutchison, born December 29, 1825; died April 14, 1910.
 - ii Ebenezer Nye Hutchison, born July 4, 1827.
 - iii Alexander Adam Hutchison, born April 19, 1830; died April 11, 1848.
 - iv John Grey Hutchison, born January 28, 1832; died January 17, 1911.
- 922d Manda, born April 29, 1795; died June 10, 1876.

465--JONAS WARD NYE: same as 1907 book except he married Mary Blodgett.

471--CAPTAIN IRA NYE (John 155, David 37, Jonathan 5, Benjamin 1), born April 10, 1788 at Lee, Mass. He served in the War of 1812 and died in Lee in 1827. He married August 22, 1813, Almira Battlle, born June 3, 1792, daughter of Lt. Ithiel and Keziah(Taylor) Battlle.

Children:

- 1193a Milton Brewster, born October 15, 1814.
- 1193 George Milton, born December 25, 1816.
- 1193b Abigail, born October 2, 1820.

1193c Grove Albro, born August 4, 1824.

484b--ELIAS NYE (NEY) (John 169, John 40, Caleb 7, Benjamin 1), born August 1774, in Exeter, R. I. He married in 1799, Hannah Tucker, born in 1774. Land records of Exeter show he sold his share of his father's estate in March 1818 at which time he resided in Voluntown, Conn., which is just across the state line from Exeter. He died in Voluntown, R.I. in 1845; Hannah died in Waltham, Ill., in 1856.

Children:

*1224a George, born January 28, 1801.

1224e Daniel.

586--SALMON STURGES NYE (Ebenezer 199, Caleb 53, Nathan 8, Benjamin 1), born about 1779 at Oakham, Mass. His mother, not listed in the 1907 book was Julia Hinckley. He served in the Revolutionary Army in Colonel John Rand's regiment. He read law and practiced in Barnstable from 1807 and was County Attorney from 1811 to 1813. He removed to No. Carolina where he died in 1823, age about 45.

Child:

*1479a James Madison, born October 16, 1809.

587--JOHN NYE (Ebenezer 199, Caleb 53, Nathan 8, Benjamin 1), born about 1780 at Oakham, Mass. and died at New Bedford, Mass. in 1826. He practiced Law at New Bedford.

SIXTH GENERATION

811--DANIEL BUTLER NYE (Nathan, Jr. 261, Stephen 77, Nathan 17, John 3, Benjamin 1)... same as 1907 book... , additions from Bible of Experience Freeman Swift.

Children:

1832 through 1835 and 1837, no change.

1836 Francis Henry, born January 19, 1823, not January 29.

1838 Harriet, born September 23, 1830. She married Gustavus Parker of Plympton, Mass. She had:

i Harriett Nye Parker, born May 11, 1862. She married June 10, 1886, William H. Wilbur of Fall River, Mass. She died June 14, 1952.

ii Ann Burgess Parker, born November 20, 1866. She married December 26, 1891, Henry Adelbert Gannett of Somerville, Mass. She died September 8, 1956.

iii Roscoe Leslie Parker, born August 3, 1859; died October 9, 1938.

921--EBENEZER NYE (Sylvanus 318, Shubal 99, Meletiah 22, Ebenezer 4, Benjamin 1), born 1792 in S. Amenia, N. Y.; died September 29, 1824. He married M. Rachel Herrick who was born 1787; died 1860.

Children:

2000a Sarah Louise; died unmarried.

2000b Charles, born about 1820; died 1844.

2000 Ebenezer Lee.

922--SYLVANUS NYE (Sylvanus 318, Shubal 99, Meletiah 22, Ebenezer 4, Benjamin 1), born July 29, 1787 in S. Amenia, N. Y. He married (1st) February 11, 1810, Elizabeth Williams who died before October, 1836. He left Dutchess Co., N. Y., removed to Herkimer and later to Tompkins which became Schuyler. He there married (2nd) Mrs. Lucy Harrington Hubbard. He died September 6, 1879 in Hector, N. Y.

Children:

2001a Sylvina Barlow.

2001b Amanda.

2001 Ebenezer Meltiah Williams, born September 6, 1824; died March 27, 1917.

2002 Sylvanus Hubbard, born May 22, 1842; died 1910.

2003 James Harrington, born August 11, 1844; died September 20, 1912.

944--JOHN NYE (John 332, George 167, Ichabod 28, Jonathan 5, Benjamin 1), born August 19, 1787. Married _____ to Eliza Roach. He died August 20, 1820.

Children:
2035a Sophia.

994--CORYDON NYE (Jonathan 347, Jonathan 112, Jonathan 29, Jonathan 5, Benjamin 1), born at Whittingham, Vt. in 1798. He married Freelove Groger (erroneously reported as Groges). The 1907 book lists this name as DAVID and reports him as dying at Hermitage, N. Y. 1833. Records of his great granddaughter Marjorie Elloise Nye (Faddis) #4597, originally listed as Madeline Eloise Nye, show that #994 was Corydon Nye and that Freelove Groger was the first of two wives. After the death of Freelove, he later married _____ Stanton who bore him several children. The date of his death is therefore in doubt, the date listed possibly being that of Freelove. Many of his children were not known to the original compilers.

She was very active in the affairs of St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Chilli-cothe, O. Upon her death on October 2, 1948, the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Parish formally published the following sentiments:

"Miss Nye served in numerous offices in the Church, as well as in the Auxiliary, but so many have gone who recall her active work. To the present membership, she was best known for her faithfulness, which was exemplary -- only illness prevented her attendance at each meeting. Her generosity was outstanding: monetary difficulties usually experienced by a Woman's Auxiliary are non-existent here, due to Miss Nye's foresight in making a gift of bonds. Her sincerity was unfailing, even when not the popular sentiment. She was ever careful to seek out strangers and newcomers, making them at ease and welcome by her charm and cordiality.

True Christian gentlewomen have left a definite imprint on St. Paul's Church and the Auxiliary. This organization recognizes it has lost another such influence in the death of Miss Nye."

PART II

William P. Nye

FOREWORD

Although the majority of Nyes' in America are descended from Benjamin Nye and Katherine Tupper, the descendants to Thomas, the younger brother of Benjamin, are becoming so numerous in America that they must be considered as part of the Nye Family of America. Their father, Thomas Nye son of Thomas and Katherine (Poulsden) Nye of Bidlenden, County Kent, England, was a Haberdasher. On June 10, 1619, he married for his second wife, Agnes Rye, widow of Henry Rye. The name of his first wife is not known. Their children were:

- i Benjamin, born May 4, 1620; married Katherine Tupper and settled in Sandwich, Mass.
- ii Thomas, born September 16, 1623; for conformity with the rest of this record he shall be considered first generation. Earlier history of the Nye family in England and Denmark is covered in the original Genealogy of the Nye Family in America and in the foreword to Part I of this volume.

The descendants of Thomas in America stem principally from John Nye and Charlotte Osborne. Generally in the Nye Genealogies religious affiliation is not mentioned unless pertinent to some event or achievement; in the case of John and his family, his religious convictions had much to do with significant events and some of the hardships of their lives, as well as later history of his descendants.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF JOHN NYE AND CHARLOTTE OSBORNE

John Nye (14) and Charlotte Osborne, my father and mother were married about 1834 in the Parish of Watlingberry, Kent County, England. Father followed the vocation of farming or any other kind of common labor he could get, which was always poorly paid - the average wages not exceeding 7 or 8 shillings per week, about $2.00. When the gold mines of Australia were discovered (about the year 1851) father, like many others, caught the fever and succeeded in getting enough means together to take his family on an emigrant ship to Australia. He sailed with his wife and six children on the Bark Helen, a very old vessel of 700 tons register. There were 300 emigrants on board but shortly after we got out to sea, a great deal of sickness broke out and after three weeks at sea, while crossing the equator under the burning heat of the tropical sun, 32 persons died and were thrown overboard. At last after a long and weary sail of 132 days we reached Portland, Australia.

Father soon obtained employment, about six weeks later, father and my two oldest brothers (John and James) went on foot to Port Pheary, which was several days walk and there they obtained employment with a Mr. Gibbs on a cattle and sheep ranch about 32 miles inland. Father was engaged for one year and at once sent for mother and the rest of the children. Father and James had hired as sheep-herders and Mother was hired as cook for father and John was hired as chore man and sister Emma as cook for Mr. Gibbs. In December 1853 mother gave birth to her youngest son, Osborn.

Australia, at that time, might be called the land of milk and honey. After father's engagement with Mr. Gibbs had run out, he got employment with a Mr. Tooney. But, tiring of sheep-herding in a months time, he moved the family to Warnabule, a small sea port town, where we lived until the latter part of 1856, during the last three years, father followed mining and freighting to the mines and farming.

About this time we had a valuable horse killed by a steer. John was riding after the steer to corral it, when it suddenly turned on the horse and plunged his horn into its shoulder. A vetrinarian named Dr. George Thomas Wilson, who proved to be a member of the Morman Church was sent for, this man preached the gospel to the family, as also Elder James Wall (by whom the family was baptized), from him, we learned that there was a branch of the church in Sidney, a distance of 800 miles overland. Shortly after we broke up our home and started for Sidney. Brother Wilson traveled with us. We traveled 400 miles and were overtaken by the rainy season and concluded to winter there in the following spring we went on to Sidney. And now a train of circumstances took place which as a writer of this narrative, it becomes my painful duty to record, unpleasant recollections though it is. As it had an important bearing on the whole of our lives of some members of the family. My parents who it seems had never been overburdened with love for each other had become estranged. Father was overbearing in his disposition and wanted his own way all the time and so mother decided on a separation, a divorce was out of the question, as no one in ordinary circumstances could afford such a luxury, so but one course was open and that was to move quietly away and leave father in ignorance as to her whereabouts. This was accomplished one day when father was away on business. John, my oldest brother, took mother, Emma, Charles, myself and Osborn to New South Wales, where we awaited the arrival of my brother James and Brother Wilson. They joined us in a few days and then we learned that father was determined to follow us and in his anxiety and haste had shipped to South America.

John, now head of the family and Brother Wilson were in partnership as fisherman for eight months. At the end of which time, John advertised in the Melbourne paper for American Elders of the L. D. S. Church and received two answers from a Mr. James McKay (or McKey).

On our arrival in Deyanton we found Mr. Somerville and two other elders and upon examination of our History and standing in the Mormon church there was a doubt, and now our greatest desire was to gather to Utah, but being without means it was necessary for the boys to get work, six months later we took passage on board the ship Milwaukee for San Francisco, USA news day in 1859.

We lived in San Francisco about 3 months, but as work was scarce we moved to Stockton and our four boys John, James, Charles and myself got work. During the winter of 1859 father arrived in San Diego and got in touch with the family and finally started on foot with Stephen, 400 miles, the worn and weary travelers were welcomed with much joy and gladness by all the family. Mother told father he was welcome to be with the family but she would not live with him again.

About the first of August 1860 having succeeded by our united efforts in fitting up a 4-horse team, we left via Sacramento at which point we joined others and proceeded on our way through the Sierra Nevada Mts. reaching Brigham City through Ogden and Stopped in Old East Weber (later known as Uintah) about the middle of 1860.

Here again the family separated, this time by mutual consent father taking Stephen with him and going into Salt Lake City, the rest of the family wintering in East Weber. In the spring of 1861 we were rebaptized into the church under the direction of Bishop Osborn.

In the fall of the same year, father with many others were called by the church to make new settlements in Southern Utah, being one of the pioneers to St. George, brother Charles was also in that company in the latter part of 1863 my brother John took to wife Eliza Fry, daughter of John Fry and moved to Brigham City. In the fall of 1865 mother married Henry Eggleston. On the 9th day of February 1867 I married Harriet Horsepool.

Note: Charlotte Osborne was a descendant of King Henry 8 and King George 3 was a direct ancestor. Queen Victoria lived at Osborne House on the Isle of Wight.

STEPHEN WILLIAM NYE

HISTORY OF STEPHEN WILLIAM NYE

By

IDA HELOISE NYE KNIGHT

Stephen William Nye (22) was born February 21, 1849 in Hadlow County Kent, England. He was the son of John Nye and Charlotte Osborne and the sixth of seven children. John Nye did whatever kind of work that he could get, but mostly farming and farm labor which was very poorly paid. When news of the discovery of gold in Australia came to the family, they were filled with a excitement and a desire to improve their fortune. After much effort enough means were gathered for the family to go to Australia. Passage was arranged on the emigrant ship Helen, a very small vessel of 700 tons registry.

And in 1852 John and Charlotte Osborne Nye with their children, John, Emma, James, Charles, Ephriam and Stephen left their native country and sailed for Australia. There were 300 emigrants on the small ship and shortly after leaving England a great deal of sickness broke out among the passengers. After three weeks sailing they crossed the equator and under the burning heat of the tropical sun 32 persons died and were buried at sea.

Stephen was only three years old but he remembered being on deck on a bright sunny morning when a light wind came up and blew his green cap off his head into the sea where it went skimming away. Another of his memories was of climbing upon an open cracker barrel and helping himself to sea biscuits. His father came up and saw him there and told him to get down. Just then the Captain walked by and said to let the child alone to eat what he wanted. Stephen had been very seasick.

The ship met with much stormy weather, there were times when it looked as though it could never live through the heavy seas as they rounded Cape Horn. After a long weary voage of 132 days they landed at Portland, Australia. John Nye soon found employment. After about six weeks he with his two eldest sons, John S., and James went on foot to Port Pheary which was several days journey away. There they found work with a Mr. Gibbs on a sheep station, about 32 miles inland. The rest of the family was sent for. He and his son James were employed as sheepherders with his wife engaged as cook for them. John S. was employed as choreman with Emma as cook for Mr. Gibbs. In December of 1853 the last and seventh child was born to John and Charlotte and was given the name of Osborn.

After herding sheep for over a year they moved to Warmbule a small sea port town and remained there until the latter part of 1855. Then they tried mining in the famous Baleret gold fields where they obtained a saucer full of gold. It was mined by blowing the dust and sand from the pan with their own breath, which left the heavier gold in the bottom of the pan.

But their hard earned gold was stolen from them.

Then they tried farming. Australia at that time was a land of milk and honey, a greatly blessed country. The farm was cleared by cutting the trees then pulling out the stumps which were placed around the boundry for fences. Stephen remembered all his life the many beautiful colored birds, parrots, parakeets, red, blue, green, and there chattering as they flew about among the trees. How they would roll themselves into balls, drop to the ground and land on their feet. The beautiful black and white cockatoos and the big eucalyptus trees that he climbed when any one came to the farm. And the time he was playing with his brothers and fell on a sharp rock which made a dent in his forehead.

One night there was a forest fire and the family had to run to escape. Stephen was jerked out of bed, hurriedly dressed and rushed through the forest. Not until then was it learned why he had so much trouble walking. Some one had put both his legs into one pants leg. During this time they lost a valuable horse, killed by a steer John S. was riding after the steer to bring it into the corral when it suddenly turned on the horse and plunged it's horn into the horse's shoulder. A veterinarian, George Thomas Wilson was called to care for the horse. This man was a Mormon and he preached the gospel to the family. Also Elder James Wall came and he baptized them. Though later there was a doubt as to his right to do that so they were rebaptized at another time. They told the family that there was a group of Mormons in Sydney, 800 miles away. It was decided to go to Sydney and join the saints there. They broke up their home and started, travled 400 miles before the rainy season set in. They stayed at that place for the winter and continued the journey to Sydney in the spring.

John Nye bought a cart with two big wheels and a span of oxen and outfitted with supplies which he hauled to the Balaet and sold to the miners. Sometimes he outfitted at Sydney other times at Melbourne. He took his son Stephen on many of these trips.

About this time Charlotte Osborne Nye decided on a move that would have deep effect on some members of her family for the rest of their lives. She and her husband had not been happy together for a long time. He was a very good man but was at times rather hard to live with. A divorce was out of the question for poor people in that place and at that time so the only thing to do was to just leave. While he was away on one of his trips, Stephen was with him, she took her five sons and her daughter and left without leaving word of where she was going. She knew that Stephen was his father's favorite and felt that she should leave him with his father.

John Nye was very upset when he returned and found all of his family gone. He though they must have gone to America, that had been their great hope ever since joining the Church and he must find them. He hurriedly disposed of all his possessions and not having enough money, he arranged to work his passage to America as ships carpenter on the steamship Golden Gate, an old side wheel steamship, with Stephen as extra cargo. The boy was a favorite with all the crew and they saved bits of their own food and even stole food so he could be fed and the Captain joined them in being sure the boy was cared for. One accident that might have been serious was the breaking of the main shaft wheel which caused the ship to list, throwing all the passengers to one side of the ship, but repairs were soon made and the voyage continued. Stephen remembered getting some molasses on his hand, he couldn't bear anything sticky. He also remembered the ship stopped at Valparoso South America where they took on bananas.

He was about nine years old when they landed in San Francisco. John Nye bought a wheelbarrow, loaded their supplies in it and started down the King's Highway (Camino Real) with Stephen pulling the wheelbarrow with a short rope. John did a little carpentering as they went along down into Southern California. Stephen getting an occasional ride on the wheel barrow when he got tired and being left with the native Californians and learning to speak Spanish. The Spanish people loved the little muchacho with the golden hair.

They wandered around for nearly a year in the beautiful country and Stephen always remembered some of the Spanish he learned as a child. One night the notorious outlaw Vasquez came to their camp. He carried two guns and frightened Stephen. But Vasquez chucked him under the chin and told him not to be frightened and made much over him. He stayed the night with them. In the meantime the rest of the family had arrived in San Francisco where they remained for a few months then traveled to Stockton where the four older sons found work. John Nye had got in touch with them and he and Stephen started northward to join them. Stephen remembered a great wide flat valley and his father pushing the wheelbarrow and himself pulling on a rope tied to it. He remembered a wide river bed dry, and sandy and a group of sycamore trees. He became very ill with a fever and was lying under one of those trees when four swarthy Spaniards came riding by on horses and looked down at him and frightened him.

It was learned that they were Mormons so his father was accused of stealing money from a saloon. John Nye couldn't make the men believe that he didn't steal the money so he thought the wisest thing to do was to leave as quickly as he could. He went into a timbered spot a few miles away and left Stephen, a child of about 10 years, while he went back for supplies. He left a gun with Stephen and told him to stay right there until he got back. It was dark and Stephen went to sleep but was awakened about midnight by horsemen riding in to hunt them. They planned on lynching John Nye. He didn't make a sound but was frightened half to death. It was so dark they couldn't see him so they rode off, and they missed his father too, who returned a few hours later.

In the course of time, very travel worn and weary they found the rest of the family at Stockton. There was a happy reunion and they all joined together to go the rest of the way to Utah. They spent the winter of 1859-1860 at Stockton and in August 1860, by their united efforts were able to outfit themselves with a wagon and a four horse team. They joined with four other outfits and started the last part of the journey to Zion. They went by way of Sacramento across the Sierre Nevada Mountains. While crossing the mountains there was an accident. There was an old lady and her husband who had lived in Utah and left there, and had said that she hoped she would get her neck broken if she ever went back. From the time she got into the wagon the horses kept trying to run away, the last time they ran away the old lady was thrown from the wagon and her neck was broken. That was the last trouble with the horses. Going through the mountains Stephen saw snow for the first time in his life, it was so beautiful and so much fun to play in, until it nipped his fingers and toes. He never in all his life liked snow after that.

While crossing Nevada the leader of the company felt prompted to detour at a certain spot in the road. Again he felt the prompting so the members of the company advised to heed that prompting. They pulled off the road and went some distance around. By doing so the lives of the company were saved but the next wagon train that came along was waylaid by Indians and were massacred to the last man and woman.

They finely arrived in Brigham City, went on through Ogden to East Weber, which was later called Unitah, arriving about the middle of October 1860. Here again the family separated, this time by mutual consent. John Nye taking Stephen and going to Salt Lake City, the rest of the family wintering in East Weber. In the spring of 1861 or 1862 they were rebaptized into the Church. In the fall of 1862 John Nye was called to help build new settlements in southern Utah, Charles, the third son was also of that party. Emma married (2nd) Erastus Bingham in the fall of 1862, in 1863 John S. married Eliza Fry and moved to Brigham City. In the fall of 1865 Charlotte Osborne Nye, having obtained a divorce in this country, married Henry Eggelston and Ephriam married Harriet Horspool.

As a very young man Stephen lived in Salt Lake City. He acted in the Salt Lake theater and played in the early day bands. When he was 18 years old he went to Ogden and went out on some land near Honeyville to get a home, but he fell sick and became so ill he made his way over to his brother's John's home in Honeyville, but the sister-in-law wouldn't allow him to come into their house nor would she give him anything to eat. He could not get back to his tent that night as he was too sick so he slept under a wagon box. The next morning he managed to get back to his tent. He put some water by his bed and lay there soon becoming unconscious and lying in that condition for six days, with no one around at all. On the sixth day a man found him there. He had typhoid fever but he recovered from that and also from many other illness and accidents.

He married Cecilia Simmonds in Logan while still very young. They had seven children, the first two girls died in infancy. He used to call for the dances, the quadrilles and Virginia reels. They considered him so good that one night when he was sick and couldn't go to a dance they came and got him out of bed and said the dance couldn't go on without him.

He left Logan and moved to Ogden where he and David Eccles got a contract getting out railroad ties. They were working in Taylor Canyon east of Ogden. One day Stephen was working alone as Mr. Eccles had gone farther up the canyon. He was chopping out a tie with his axe when the axe slipped and struck his knee, fracturing the kneecap. He crept down the canyon to his horse and somehow mounted him. Joseph Ririe came along just then and helped him to his home where he lay for weeks and weeks with infection that did not heal. Dr. Anderson had to amputate the whole leg which was done without any opiate. They gave him a bullet to bite on and he bit it until it was flat.

Again it was many weeks before his wound was healed. After his recovery he went into the sawmill business. He was just twenty-seven years old. After the loss of his leg he was still active, going to the canyons alone to get his logs. People couldn't understand how he could get those big logs on the wagon. He could still swim and climb trees. He had the first shingle mill around this part of the country. In the meantime he married again, in polygamy, to his wife's sister, Alice Julia Simmonds. He and Alice had eight children, the first a girl died, later a boy died.

The last sawmill he had was located near the river in East Huntsville. He had moved his family to Huntsville where the last five children were born. One evening a large group of Indians came and camped near the sawmill. Soon Stephen noticed the Indians were carrying his lumber away board by board. Alice was very indignant and insisted that he go and stop them. But Stephen, one man, with only one leg, couldn't see how he could stop a large group of Indians from doing what they wanted to do. The family went to bed much worried for that lumber was needed to supply them with food. The next morning Stephen went to the sawmill with a heavy heart. In a few minutes he came striding back and told Alice to come with him. The Indians, after a night of dancing and celebration had returned every board to its place. Another time one of the Chiefs offered his daughter as a wife, but Stephen refused, saying he had all he could take care of.

One time he bought a fine team of mules. Shortly after that there was a big thunder storm, one of the mules was struck by lightening and killed. The other mule got sick and died. At another time he was up Magpie canyon and was returning home with a load of logs. As he drove around Horseshoe bend he noticed a horse walking down the road ahead of his team, noticed too that the horse was just like one in his own team. The horse went around the bend and when Stephen drove around the bend the horse had disappeared so he got off the wagon to find out just where the horse had left the road so he could inform anyone who might be looking for a stray horse. But there wasn't a sign of a track where a horse had left the road. Stephen knew it was a warning to him, he felt that he must hurry home. He drove right on and arrived home late in the night. The next morning when he went out to care for his team one of the horses was dead.

One time Stephen was in Ogden when he noticed a blind man playing a harmonica, his tin cup beside him, hoping to gain a few coins, he took the harmonica from the blind man and stood beside him and played a number of beautiful pieces. People gathered around to watch this blind man being helped by the tall crippled man supported by his hand made crutch and cane and Stephen motioned for them to put money in the tin cup. He always made his own crutch and cane because he was afraid of the factory made crutches, they didn't look strong enough for him, he was a big man six feet tall.

While Stephen was a boy he had watched an old Indian make baskets. He ask the Indian to teach him, little knowing that late in life he would make his living making baskets. We children used to watch him prepare the willows by soaking in water and peeling them, then weaving them into strong beautiful baskets.

After living in Huntsville for twelve years he moved to Ogden. He had never forgotten the ocean and his love for it so the family moved to Oregon staying a winter in the beautiful Hood River Valley and in the spring going down the Columbia River on a river boat J.N. Teal. They took a trip to Tillamook where he watched the ocean which was like a glimpse of heaven to him. I was with him on that trip. Then they returned to Ogden.

About 1909 a man came to the house asking for Stephen, who was not at home. He said, "Sister Nye you have a very good man. I heard him pray once in the woods when he thought he was alone. I never heard a more beautiful or impressive prayer."

A year later he again went to the Northwest where they stayed for several years in Vancouver, Washington. The Mormon missionaries stayed with the family and held cottage meetings and Sunday School in their home and were sometimes joined by a few friends. Many times the neighbors would gather around to hear them sing, but would not attend the meetings though they were kind and friendly neighbors.

Stephen and three of his sons decided to go down into Southeastern Oregon, to Harney County to homestead some land. But on the way down he had a stroke and was paralyzed so the idea had to be given up. It was a very hard trip to get that helpless man the 265 miles to Baker City over the rough roads and sparsely settled country. It took them ten days. He lived for five months after arriving in Baker City. He died October 6, 1914, and is buried at Backer City, Oregon.

He had only three months formal schooling. He had taught himself, was a good mathemation, knew something of law, was able to help his neighbors when they needed a little legal advice. He read every book he could get hold of and was quite well read. His love for reading has been handed down to his decendants.

His Patriarchal Blessing said, "thou shalt have power to lay hands on thy wife and family when they are sick and they shall recover." We all received those blessings many times. He was an honest, honorable, and kind gentleman, always courteous and gentlemanly. I am proud that this good man was my father.

APPENDIX I

THE NYE COATS OF ARMS

A coat-of-arms originally meant a light tunic worn over battle armor and was usually decorated with symbology representing the family of the wearer. The symbology itself eventually came to be called coat-of-arms. It probably served to identify friend from foe.

Probably the most appropriate coat-of-arms for the descendants of Benjamin and Thomas Nye is the Nye of Denmark crest dating from early Denmark times.

Azur a crescent increscent argent.
Crest: Two horns coupéd counter-changed azur and argent.

Authorities: Lexicon over Adelige
Familiær in Denmark, Norge og Hert-ogdomenue. Published by the Kongl.
Danske Geal. og Her. Selskab, Kjøbenhavn.

Rietstap, Armorial General.

The shield is blue with a silver crescent in the center and mounted so that it is rotated 45° counter-clockwise. Above is a helmet with the familiar Norse horns rising from it; one reference says that this is not a helmet but a drinking cup! To each side is draped battle pennants; again one opinion is that this represents a shoulder scarf of the period. The Danmarks Adels Aarborg (Yearbook of Noble Families) Vol. XXIII of 1906 asserts that the Nye family became noble in 1419 by marriage to the German noble family of Von Halberstadt. The Halberstadts were of Wendish origin, first appearing in Mecklinburg, Germany, near Denmark in 926 and eventually becoming noble. That they were early in Denmark is evidenced by a reference to a Hening Halberstadt in a Brief of Kings of Denmark, 1371. The Rietstap Armorial General shows the Halberstadt shield as identical to the Nye shield except in the versions shown, the German shield is red where the Nye shield is blue. Danmarks Adels Aarborg also states the Nye crest originally had seven peacock feathers rising from it.

There is an "American" coat-of-arms prized by the family for its beauty. This crest, painted in the unrecognizable style of John W. Coles of Boston was undoubtedly created by him or his son, John F. Coles, Jr. Following the American Revolution it was fashionable for families of the early settlers to display their personal coat-of-arms. Mr. Coles and his son were prolific producers of these to order.

The shield is upright in blue, gold and white with four horizontal crescents and three ravens. The helmet is gold with ornate embellishments to each side in red and grey. The palms below are blue and gold and the scross with the motto "BY THE NAME OF NYE" is edged in red.

Nye Coat of Arms - Painted by John Cole of Boston during the latter part of the 18th century, and found in the Benjamin Nye House.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE
 NYE FAMILY OF AMERICA ASSOCIATION, INC.
 1903 TO 1963

The Nye Family of America Association was formed in 1903 and held reunions periodically until 1928. Very little interest in the Association was shown during the next thirty years. Then a threat by the State of Massachusetts to destroy the old house built and lived in by Benjamin¹ Nye caused the Association to reorganize and become very active.

The Nye Homestead, built in 1685, was lived in by eight successive generations of the Nye Family until 1911, when it was sold by Mrs. Helen Nye Holway, affectionately known among her many friends as "Grandma Holway," to a distant cousin, Ray Nye of Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

In 1936 Mrs. Helen Nye Holway, at the age of 95 years, was able to recall when there had been a blacksmith shop, grist mill, carding machine, shoemaker's shop, tannery and general store, all within a stone's throw of the old house. There were forty acres of land with grape vines, fruit orchards, berry patches and a running brook from the mill pond, furnishing soft water for washing; also a fresh spring which supplied drinking water.

In 1924 Ray Nye decided he could no longer use the house and gave it to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, along with a large tract of land -- probably forty acres -- which the Commonwealth had been leasing for use as a wild life sanctuary and for the propagation of game and fish. The understanding was that the State would maintain the house in good repair, improve the grounds and make it a beauty spot.

In 1958 Mrs. Walter D. Cullity, a Nye descendant who has lived in East Sandwich near the old Benjamin Nye Homestead most of her life, became disturbed when she heard that it was likely to be moved away or torn down. For several years she tried to interest other members of the Nye Family, friends and neighbors, in taking some action to preserve it.

In May 1959 about thirty persons interested in saving the Nye house attended a meeting when it was voted to petition the Commonwealth of Massachusetts that the Nye House, together with sufficient land, be deeded to the Nye Family of America Association for restoration. With the assistance of Senator Edward C. Stone, the co-operation of the State authorities was secured. It was later voted to have the Association incorporated before the property was transferred. This was completed October 26, 1961, and on May 14, 1962, a deed from the Commonwealth covering the house and a small parcel of land on which it stands was given to the Nye Family of America Association, Inc.

The first officers of the new corporation were:

Roswell H. Nye, Sr., Harwichport, Mass.	President
Mrs. John H. Field, Sandwich, Mass.	Clerk
Mrs. T. Eldred Holway, East Sandwich, Mass.	Treasurer

Mrs. Cullity was chosen as Chairman of the Restoration Committee. The Directors include Mrs. Charles S. Lloyd, Sandwich; Joseph B. Nye, Jr., Buzzards Bay; Mrs. Joseph B. Nye, Jr., Buzzards Bay; Lindsay R. Armstrong, East Sandwich; Miss Margerie Leonard, Osterville; T. Eldred Holway, East Sandwich; John H. Field, Sandwich; Roswell H. Nye, Sr., Harwichport; Mrs. Walter D. Cullity, East Sandwich. At a later meeting R. Glen Nye, San Diego, California, was appointed Chairman of the Genealogical Committee.

A very successful reunion of the Nye Family was held August 2, 3 and 4, 1963, the Sixtieth Anniversary of the First Reunion, with an attendance of about 150 people, representing eighteen states from Coast to Coast. Everyone agreed that it was most enjoyable. Real progress has been made on the project of restoring the Nye House, and it is hoped that we shall see further work done each year until it is completed. It is hoped that in future years the homestead will be suitable for use as a meeting place and as headquarters for reunions and that it will be considered as a memorial to the Benjamin Nye Family.
